Apply For a Nonimmigrant Visa

Select country where you will go to the consulate for the appointment

& Enter the code that shows below

Click "start an application" to begin

(you can upload / retrieve an application in case you already started the application previously, as you can save the process along the way)

Application Information

Please record your Application ID in a safe and secure place.

If there are technical issues with the system, or you want to complete your application some other time, you can save your work and later, start where you left off. In order to access your application later, however, you will need: (1) your Application ID, and (2) the answer to the security question that you will choose on this page.

To choose a security question, pick the one you like the best from the dropdown list, type your answer to that question in the box below, and click "Continue." Remember: In order to access your application later, you will need to know the answer exactly as you wrote it on this page.

You can also use your Application ID and security question to retrieve your Confirmation Page after you have submitted your application, or to use your previously provided application information to complete a new application at a later date.

If you do not plan to complete your application within the next 30 days, download your application to your computer by clicking the "Save" button at the bottom of the last completed page. Follow the instructions. When you are ready to complete your application, select "Upload an Application". NOTE: Only download your application to a computer that cannot be accessed by anyone who does not have your permission to see or record your personal data. If you download your application a shared or public computer, such as a computer in a cyber cafe or library, your personal information may be able to be accessed by other users.

Note: Electronically submitting your DS-160 online application is the FIRST STEP in the visa application process. The next step is to review the internet page of the embassy or consulate where you plan to apply for your visa. Most visa applicants will need to schedule a visa interview, though some applicants may qualify for visa renewal. The embassy or consulate information may include specific local instructions about scheduling interviews, submitting your visa application, and other frequently asked questions.

We advise our candidates not to book their flight until their Visa has been approved and they have received their passport back from the consulate.

For this reason, and if this is the case, you most likely do not have specific travel plans (select “no”).

On “intended date of arrival”, select a date around 1 week prior to the program start date (this is an estimate and there will be no issues in case you fly in a slightly different date).

The “intended Length of Stay in U.S.” should reflect the duration of your program (usually 12 or 18 months) and match the length on your DS 2019

Security and Background: Part 1

Once again, please answer truthfully to the questions on this section and include the appropriate explanations (if required).

Keep in mind these questions are asked to everyone who applies for a Visa, they are general and encompass many topics as the U.S. Government wants to ensure they cover all of the important information they should know about anyone who is planning to visit their country.

It is for safety reasons and not targeted to you in specific.

Part 1 refers to your health.

Sign and Submit

Read the following information carefully before dating, electronically signing and submitting the application.

Your application is now ready to be submitted. Please note that this does not necessarily mean that your application for a nonimmigrant visa is complete, as additional information may be needed after Department of State personnel have reviewed the application.

By clicking “Sign and Submit Application” you are electronically signing the application. You are required to electronically sign your application yourself, unless otherwise exempt by regulation, even if the application has been prepared by someone other than yourself. Your electronic signature certifies that you have read and understood the questions in this application and that your answers are true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief. The submission of an application containing any false or misleading statements may result in the permanent refusal of a visa or the denial of entry into the United States. All declarations made in this application are unsworn declarations made under penalty of perjury. (28 U.S.C. 1746).

Additionally, by clicking “Sign and Submit Application” you are certifying that you understand that you are required to submit your visa to the United States Immigration Officer at the port where you apply to enter the United States, and that possession of the visa does not entitle you to enter the United States if, upon your arrival, you are found to be inadmissible under U.S. immigration laws. You are certifying that you understand that any willfully false or misleading statement or willful concealment of a material fact made by you within the application may subject you to permanent exclusion from the United States and, if you are admitted to the United States, may subject you to criminal prosecution and/or deportation.

The information that you have provided in your application and other information submitted with your application may be accessible to other government agencies having statutory or other lawful authority to use such information, including for law enforcement and immigration law enforcement purposes. If fingerprints are collected as part of your application process, they may be used for the purpose of comparing them to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) fingerprint system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories). The photograph that you provide with your application may be used for employment verification or other U.S. law purposes.

Sign and Submit

You should carefully read all of the information in this section before agreeing to it in order to fully understand that you are confirming any details you have included in your application and what it means for you to submit it.

Human Trafficking Prevention

Pursuant to Section 202 of the William Wilberforce Trafficking Victims Protection Reauthorization Act of 2008 you are required to receive a copy of an informational pamphlet on the legal rights and resources of aliens applying for employment- or education-based nonimmigrants visas. Please read the pamphlet carefully. We strongly encourage you to print a copy of a pamphlet and keep it with you if your visa is granted and you travel to the United States.
